

The Final Salute Society

The Final Salute Society stands a silent vigil at funerals where a soldier has no next of kin, no friends present to receive the final salute to honor their service to our nation. No soldier is ever buried alone.

Co-Founders: Retired Major General Charles Metcalf and Elaine M. Herrick

Honorary Chair: Montgomery County Common Pleas Court Judge Dennis Adkins

